

Dog Policy

1. You shall keep your dog on a dual leash at all times. For the avoidance of doubt, this is done using a slip lead along with a standard leash, each independently attached to the dog.
2. You shall have engaged in reasonable training of your dog prior to your attendance at the Event.
3. You are responsible for supplying your own food and beverages for your dog.
4. You may only bring one (1) dog on the Event premises.
5. You may only enter the following Event premises areas with your dog: the area designated as “Mudder Village”, and the “Ruff Mudder” event course (no access to the ‘Spectator Route’. Your dog may not enter those Event premises areas designated as “No Dog Zones,” which shall include the medical tent, food and beverage service areas, the rinse stations and any water areas.
6. Your dog is permitted on the Event premises only during daylight hours. You shall remove your dog from the Event premises during overnight Events (including Toughest Mudder and World’s Toughest Mudder).
7. At all times, your dog must wear an identification tag containing your contact information and a Tough Mudder provided wristband on your dog’s collar.
8. You represent, warrant and covenant that
 - (a) you shall accompany your dog at all times while your dog is on the Event premises,
 - (b) that you are at least eighteen (18) years of age,
 - (c) your dog’s vaccinations and veterinary care is up to date, and your dog’s veterinarian has determined that your dog is of the appropriate level of health to attend the Event and does not have any disease or illness that may be transferred to any other dog or person on the Event premises,
 - (d) your dog will not engage in any behavior on the Event premises deemed dangerous to other persons or dogs on the Event premises, and
 - (e) your dog will not engage in unpredictable behavior on the Event premises. If your dog is a female dog in heat, your dog is not permitted on the Event premises. If your dog engages in any inappropriate or disruptive behavior while on the Event premises, you may be asked by a Tough Mudder representative to leave the Event premises and not return (and not receive a refund in connection therewith).
9. You shall not leave your dog unattended (including tied up or in your automobile) on the Event premises.
10. You are responsible for the immediate removal of dog waste and the placement of such waste in an appropriate and designated trash receptacle.
11. You agree and acknowledge that Tough Mudder does not and shall not provide any medical care to your dog. Your dog’s presence on the Event premises is at your sole risk and expense. If your dog is involved in a medical incident on the Event premises (e.g., an alleged scratch or bite), you agree to immediately report such incident to a Tough Mudder representative and comply with all procedures associated therewith. You agree and acknowledge that victims of an alleged injury resulting from your dog’s actions may pursue further remedies with local authorities. In the event of a dog fight involving your dog and another dog, all animals and their owners shall be promptly required to leave the Event premises. A fight is defined as undesired physical contact between two animals that requires physical separation action from their owners in excess of a verbal command.

PRESENTED BY

Transforming Lives™